

Tarot on the go... 4-6-10

Learn how to program your Tarot cards, and gain the ability to read them quickly.

It is said that the Tarot is a Book of Enlightenment, and the Gypsies were entrusted with this sacred knowledge. It was camouflaged as a card game to hide its true meaning from the general population.

A chamber of the great pyramid of Egypt contains inscriptions of 22 pictures of the Major Arcana of the Tarot. It is believed that thousands of years ago, these wandering bands of Gypsies eventually brought the Tarot to the Crown Heads of Europe, helping them amass even greater wealth.

In these rapidly changing times, we are in greater need of finding out information quickly, especially when our safety and development might be effected.

To learn how to program your Tarot cards and have the ability to discern them quickly, you will want to get a traditional deck, preferably the Rider-Waite deck.

Dedicate your deck to your own specific higher purpose, and then keep it in a silk scarf or a wooden box. Use this deck for your 'quick' readings only. If you do this 'quick' reading once a day, you will be able to watch the card from the "near future" move closer into the present. (When you are 'throwing' the cards for an in-depth reading, you will treat each card as a 'window' into the specific situation of your inquiry.)

Shuffle the cards from one hand into the other. They are not to be shuffled as you would in regular card table games. Use all the cards and keep them in an upright position as you shuffle, with the back of the cards facing you.

You will shuffle with the intention to "see what is going on in my life today." Trust that your Higher Self is directing all the cards to line up in the best possible formation for your reading. It may take a few minutes to line the cards up right, so don't worry if it takes longer than you think it should, just keep shuffling until you just 'know' the cards are in the right alignment.

The Celtic Cross is perhaps the best spread to use for this fast reading, for it gives you the Present, Recent Past, Near Future and more. The best way to learn this spread if you don't already know it, is to check out www.Tarot.com

It may take a little time to learn all the abbreviated meanings of the cards, but once you do, you will be able to shuffle and 'throw' the cards and read what is going on in your life in a couple of minutes.

If you are familiar with the traditional meanings of the Tarot cards, you will find some minor and major variations in the interpretations in the cards listed above.

Always proceed with extreme caution when reading and interpreting your cards, especially with the Queen of Rods. Do not come to any solid conclusions without a certain amount of introspection and Guidance. Use them as a guideline only. If you are uncertain of your answers, and wish verification on some issues, a good psychic with integrity could help you with your questions.

(Disclaimer: What you interpret from your Tarot cards is your sole responsibility. The above explanations are for suggested use only.)

Once you finish your Tarot reading, shuffle your cards a little to 'clear' the energy from your reading, then place them in a box or silk scarf.

IMPORTANT NOTE ABOUT RECEIVING THE DEVIL CARD:

In these swiftly changing times where the dark seems to be getting darker, many psychics have been reporting that entity attachment is becoming more pronounced. If you receive the Devil card in your reading in ANY position, use your pendulum to find out where the entity is located; in your home, in your car, attached to you, etc. You will want to use the following Command to clear them from you or your home. Do not be afraid. You can easily command them to leave.

Use the following command with complete confidence that it will work.

Speak it with AUTHORITY...

“In the name of Jesus the Christ, I COMMAND you to leave me gently now and forever.

In the name of Jesus the Christ, I COMMAND you to leave me gently now and forever.

In the name of Jesus the Christ, I COMMAND you to leave me gently now and forever.

I fill the void with peace, love, harmony and the Light of the Holy Spirit.

I ask Michael the Archangel to take you to where you belong.

SO BE IT!

Thank you Michael.”

If ever you feel an unexplained sudden feeling of massive discomfort or a sudden change in your vision, please check for the presence of an entity. (Note: A lot of these disembodied spirits are trying to get to the light, and you will actually be helping them by doing the above command. If you feel too unsure to do the command yourself when you have found an attachment, this is understandable, so just find someone who can do it for you.)

With 2012 fast approaching, and with all these new intense waves of energy entering our Planet, you will want to have as many tools available for your use as possible. Being able to read your cards quickly will be an invaluable help to you in the days and months to come.

From my Heart to yours,

Amara
